W. K. VANDERBILT HAS WON MILLION AND A HALF ON FRENCH TURF.

Wealthy New Yorker Has Headed List of Winning Owners in France Five Times-H. B. Duryea and Others Also Do Well of all Americans whose colors have been represented on the French turf, W. K. Vanderbilt has been by far the most successful. Mr. Vanderbilt first began to race in France in 1897. His beginning was made in an exceedingly modest way and it was not until the season of 1901 that his horses began to figure prominently. In that year his purse and stake winnings amounted to the comfortable sum of $27,272, and from that time on they increased by leaps and bounds until the close of the season of 1906 found him filling the coveted role of leading money-winning owner of France, with winnings of $245,380. The succeeding year brought such a slump in the stable's showing that it dropped back to the same position it had occupied two years before, sixth, with winnings of but $65,725. Then followed a series of triumphs and successful seasons for Mr. Vanderbilt, the like of which has never been duplicated by any other American racing in foreign lands. During the four years beginning with 1908 and ending with 1911, the Vanderbilt stable stood supreme in France. Its banner year was 1908, in which the horses carrying the Vanderbilt cloolors won the princely sum of $262,815. The record for 1909 was a tittle less imposing, and the two following years brought a further diminution of earnings, but it was not until 1912 that Mr. Vanderbilt lost the distinction of being the leader. In that year his stable stood fifth. Last season was the poorest in results for the Vanderbilt stable that it had experienced since it first came into prominence. Mr. Vanderbilt continues to maintain elaborate establishment and it is among the possibilities that the present season will see a return of its pilenomenal successes. The tabulation that follows sets forth the record of the Vanderbilt stable on the French turf. Year.

Other Americans who have raced with success in France during the past few years include Herman B. Duryea, August Belmont and Frank Jay Gould. Mr. Duryea first took part in French racing in 1909, but it was not until 1912 that he achieved prominence. In that year he stood fourth, thanks to the prowess of Shannon, Blarney, Banshee, The Irishman and other sons and daughters of the American stallion Irish Lad, which he established at the head of his stud in France. Last year Blarney and Banshee were the chief contributors to his total of $77.760, which gave him severeth

August Belmont established a French stud a few years ago and his colors first appeared on the French tracks in 1911. It was not until the following year that they figured prominently and then Mr.
Belmont stood seventh in the winning owners' list.

J. E. Widener, of Philadelphia, has figured in French racing since 1999, with a moderate degree of success. This year his stable will be campaigned on a more ambitious scale than ever and he has engaged a skilful American Jockey, J. Loftus, to supplement the efforts of his American trainer, Thomas Welsh. The record of this stable to date in France is as follows:

FREQUENT WINNERS OF THE PAST YEAR

During the year recently ended, 3,541 thoroughbreds raced over the recognized tracks of the United States, Canada and Mexico. More than ten per cent. of the total, or 415, to be exact, are credited in the records with having won five or more races during the year. The distinction of having won most frequently went to J. L. Holland's wonderfully consistent seven-year-old son of Sombereo-Berriedale, Donald Macdonald, whose record for the year was twenty-two firsts, nine seconds and three thirds out of thirty-six starts. For second place in this respect, a triple tie developed between Kay Spence's two-year-old Hodge, J. Umensetter's six-year-old Lady Panchita and J. F. & H. S. Newman's three-year-old Pan Zareta, each of which won fifteen races. Then follow Orimar Lad and Inquieta each with fourteen firsts and Russell McGill and Samuel B. Meyer with thirteen each. The following tabulation embraces the 1913 record of all

PURSES FOR LONG SHOTS

STUCCO, QUOTED AT 40 TO 1, AMONG DAY'S WINNERS AT NORFOLK.

Whitney Entry Rules Favorite for Two-Year-Old Race, but Neither of Stable's Representatives Figure as Factors in the Running.

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—The surprise of the day at the Jamestown Jockey Club's track came with the running of the first race, the Virginia Nursery purse, for juveniles, over the half-mile course. A field of eight was carded to start and all went to the barrier. Commonada, a winner at Charleston, was overlooked by the talent and, favored by plenty of racing luck, scored in an easy manner, with Royal Blue second and Jesse Jr. third. The Parr candidate got away poorly, but when straightened out closed a big gap. Category started out to make a runaway race of it, but when it came to the pinch quit badly. The Whitney pair ruled favorite and both ran greenly.

E. McBride's Colors ran back to her last race and easily disposed of her opposition over the five and a half furlongs course, with Castara second and a despised outsider, Elsie Green, third. The running of the fifth race saw the longest-priced winner of the meeting lead the field past the wire in Stucco, from W. Walker's stable, and quoted at 40 to 1. He was reserved behind the early pace. worked his way through a cumbersome field and stood a hard stretch drive to win from Corneracker, another long-priced one, with the favorite, Free Trade, third.

Sackcloth, a four-year-old maiden, easily won the second race at six furlongs. She was an odds-on choice in the betting and justified the support that she received by the manner of her victory.

A bookmakers' strike was avoided this morning by the management when they dropped the attempt to pro-rate the ring. It was decided that the layers should cut in under the same conditions as have applied heretofore. Twelve layers were in line today. Jockey Dave Nicol was taken suddenly ill after the running of the second race and was forced to cancel his engagements for the day. Waldron rode in his stead.

Algernon Daingerfield departed tonight for his home in New York.

William Garth also took his departure. He goes to Washington to take up the remainder of his stable, which he will campaign through Canada this summer. This di he sustained when thrown by a horse yesterday. His ankle is in a badly swollen condition and it will be several days before he is seen in the saidle.

Among the visitors noticed today were W. G. Waller and George McSweeney, of Toronto, who arrived this morning. They will remain for ten days.

The track was in good condition this morning when the following work-outs took place:

REFUSES TO REPORT ANTI-RACING BILL.

REFUSES TO REPORT ANTI-RACING BILL.

Ways and Means Committee of Maryland Assembly Votes to Hold Hall Measure Until Monday.

Baltimore, Md., April 3.—'The fight on race track legislation at Annapolis centered today in the ways and means committee of the House of Delegates when Delegate Vessey of Worcester County defeated an effort to have the committee report the Hall anti-gambling bill.

The committee, which has been considering the bill, together with the Hoffman amendment, took up the matter, and three delegates attempted to have the bill reported. Mr. Veasey, however, succeeded in having a majority of the committee support his motion to hold it back until Monday. Monday is the last day of the Maryland legislature and the chances are extremely slim for any action being taken on the bill in the last throes of the session. Furthermore, by being held so late, the bills could only get through by a suspension of the rules of both houses and it is confidently believed that the strength of the race track supporters is sufficient to prevent any such action.

The Senate bill on race tracks, which is exactly like the one in the House, remained today in the Senate finance committee with little or no prospects of being brought out in time to be passed this session.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—The trainers at the Kentucky Association track are beseeching Superintendent James P. Ross to open the main course to them for training purposes, the footing on the inside track, because of recent rains and the frequent use to which it has been put, being exceptionally bad. Mr. Ross, however, has prevailed upon them to wait until Sunday morning, when, unless there is more rain, the track will be dry and will be opened.

Mose Goldblatt, trainer of the Jefferson Livingston string, returned this morning from Cincinnati. He says 'Tod Cook's injury is serious and was entirely unavoidable.

NEALON ARRIVES AT THORNCLIFFE.

Toronto, Ont., April 3.—The stallion Nealon and the broodmare Sula, which Robert Davies purchased at the Barney Schreiber sale in Sedalia, Mo., last week, have arrived here. Sula is due to foal to Bannockburn in a couple of weeks.

J. H. Lamb's string, which raced at Juarez, has returned to Toronto. There are four horses in the string. Song of Rocks, Dead Shot, Banrose and Jimmie Gorman. They are now at Woodbine and all look well.

AUSTRALIAN BOOKMAKING FEES

Figures as to the number of bookmakers doing business at the suburban "horse" meetings in Sydney are not available to the general public, but the "pony" clubs are not so secretive in this matter, evidently being unafraid that it should be known they are getting a big revenue in the way of betting fees. Race course attendances have greatly increased during the past couple of years, and this has naturally led to the licensing of a greater number of bookmakers. In connection with the four metropolitan "pony" clubs a man cannot choose, but must take out a license for the lot, which, to bet in the paddock, means a total of $300 and in the leger $150 for three months. For the current quarter 96 licenses have been taken out for the paddock and 147 for the leger, which means that the four clubs have already received a total of $50.850 in fees. As it is improbable there will be any falling off in registrations for the next three-quarters, the four "pony" clubs between them will, on the above basis, receive no less than $203.400 for betting privileges during the year. And then there is the amount paid to the Sydney "horse" clubs for a similar purpose to be taken into consideration. The Australian Jockey Club receipts in that direction will be $75,000 for the current year, and I do not suppose that between them Rosehill, Moorefield, Canterbury Park and Warwick Farm will receive less than another $105,000. The Hawkesbury Raching Club, and the two trotting clubs have also to be taken into consideration, consection with racing in the metropolitan area of Sydney the first charge on the public is $400.000 annually for bookmakers' licenses. Then there are numerous clubs just outside the 40 miles radius to be taken into account. We are inclined to make a fuss about the amount of prize money distributed in Sydney, but the clubs can well afford to be tiberal—some might be more so—when such a tremendous revenue is derived from one source. In view of the bookmakers being able to pay fully $400.600 in bare registration fees to do bus

THE BROOKDALE STABLE'S STRING.

Barrie, Ont., April 3.—Contrary to the experience of a year ago, the Brookdale Stable thoroughbreds of Messrs. Albert and Simon Dyment have wintered exceptionally well at Brookdale Farm, near here. Sixteen head make up the string for the coming season's campaign, the largest number that has represented the local turfmen in years. Trainer George Walker is consequently looking forward to a more successful season on the the Canadian tracks than the stable has had in recent years.

The stable will be particulary strong in the two-year-old division, with eight likely-looking young-sters to carry their colors. As the King's Plate candidates number only three, two of which have yet to make their appearance in public, the same can hardly be said of its chances for the Guineas.

The complete list of the horses in this stable follows:

Heresy, which raced in brilliant form when a three-year-old, and numbered among his victories the King's Plate and other stakes in 1912, is still a little shaky in front from his breakdown of last year. That he will stand training this season is doubtful. The son of Sain and Hera has been used for breeding purposes during the past month and in the event of his failure to stand training this summer he will be permanently retired to the stud.

Crystiawoga, after a hard course of preparation and race in the King's Plate of last year, rounded to in mid-season and proved to be the best winner for the stable. He was a tall, rangy animal, but has filled out since last fall and should show improvement during the coming season.

The stable is relying on Moss Fox for sucess in the King's Plate. He raced moderately well as a two-year-old last season, despite a bad foot, on which he is now going soundly. With the benefit of a good wintering this sturdy little colt is likely to give a good account of himself in the big race. As Beau Cheval and Mail Order, the other Platers, have yet to go to the post, there is no form on which they can be judged. Beau Cheval displayed good speed in private, but was on the shelf during most of last season suffering from bucked shins, which is common among two-year-olds. It was found necessary to operate on Mail Order this winter on account of wind trouble, and whether he will amount to much is problematical.

Tippecance. Bendel and Double Bass are colts which Messrs. Dyment purchased in England last fall. All three are American-bred, however, and were taken to England by the late Charles Kohler. Tippecance and Bendel were secured from Joseph Butters and Double Bass from Emil Herz, of McChesney fame. They are all maddens, but raced promisingly in England last year. Tippecanoe is the best looking one of the trio, but thoroughbreds do not always race to their looks. They are well turned colts, of good Chestnut colt by Red Fox II.—Bepends.

The Kelston—Drowsy colt has already been named Walker, after the stable trainer, George Walker.
Both colts are good-looking individuals.
Three foals have arrived this season, the first of which was on January 5. This is a filly by Red Fox II.—Flying Bess. Solid Comfort has as her first foal a bay colt by Kelston. Minniewaska has a bay filly by Red Fox II. and Hera a bay filly by Red Fox II. both of which died.
Failing to show his merits as a sire, Tongorder, hero of many brilliant races, has been gelded and will be used as a saddle horse. Fort Hunter is now the property of the United States Government and, as a saddle horse, led the inaugural parade of President Wilson at Washington, D. C.
Two broodmares have been added to the stable in Donation and Ameliana. The latter is a black filly, four years old, by Sain, and was purchased from Barney Schreiber. Donation is seven years old, and was a well-known racer on the Canadian half-mile tracks in recent years in the colors of H. C. Airhart. Both have been mated with Red Fox II.

THE H. B. DURYEA HORSES IN FRANCE.

Durbar II., the three-year-old colt by Rabelais out of Armenia, belonging to Mr. H. B. Duryea, which won the Prix de St. Cloud, is engaged in the Two Thousand Guineas at Newmarket and the Epsom Derby. Something out of the common must have been thought of him by his breeder and owner, for he is one of the most heavily engaged youngsters in the Book Calendar, and his French liabilities include the French Guineas. Derby, and Grand Prix de Paris, as well as the Prix Delatre, the Prix Lagrange, the Prix Edgard de la Charme, the Prix Daru, the Prix Lupin, the Prix La Rochette, and several Biennials. Although it can hardly be elaimed that the horses opposed to him at St. Cloud are in the first class of French three-year-olds, Onrbar II., created a good impression by his victory, He made all the running, and won quite easily by two lengths. This puts him in front of Maitre et Seigneur, which, according to two-year-old running, was about a stone behind the best of his year. In the Prix Partisan at Le Tremblay, Maitre et Seigneur, which, according to two-year-old running, was about a stone behind the best of his year. In the Prix Partisan at Le Tremblay, Maitre et Seigneur, had beaten Durbar II., so it looks as if Mr. Duryea's colt had made the greater improvement during the winter. Some useful horses have commenced their three-year-old careers by winning the Prix de St. Cloud, the hoons of that race having gone in 1906 to Prestigo, in 1908 to Monitor, in 1909 to Verdun, and in 1911 to Faucheur, and it is to be hoped that the victory of Durbar II. will be a happy augury for Mr. Duryea's stable during the forthcoming season.

This American sportsman has established a fine stud farm at Bazoches-en-Houlme, near Monitabara, in the department of Orne, where he now has over thirty broodmares and three stallions. The latter are Irish Lad. By Candlemas; Sweeper II. (a horse that will be well remembered in England, by Broomistick, and Blarney, by Irish Lad and tof Varnenia, the dam of Sweeper II. Mr. Duryea's horses are trained privately by T. Murphy at Lamorlaye, and they comprise a very useful lot, more than half being two-year-olds. Here is the present strength of the stable:

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

C. I. M., Detroit, Mich. Racing is to begin at Tulsa April 11.

Howard D. Buffalo, N. Y. It is open bookmaking at Norfolk and it will be the same at Havre de Grace. Cannot say positively as to Tulsa, but presume it will be syndicate booking.

G. W., Toronto, Ont. The third race at Juarez Margh 15 was for three-year-olds. Rey is a five-year-old. The starter was J. W. Fuller's three-year-old brown gelding Roy, by Marchmont II.—Tokalon.

L. D., Chicago. In 1913 Colonel Cook won eleven races, while Jabot won three, Kinmundy five and 17 Aiglon one. Frank Hudson was not more than 1 to 4 in his race of March 23. Probably he would prove been had he not been coupled with Napier in the betting.

DERBY HORSES HELD AT HIGH FIGURES.

Easterner in Unsuccessful Quest in Kentucky for Good Three-Year-Old-Louisville Gossip.

Louisville, Ky.. April 3.—An illustration of the strides that racing is making throughout the country and the prestige of the sport in Kentucky is furnished by the fact that at present it is almost impossible to purchase for any reasonable sum any good race horse of established merit. For a week or more a prominent and wealthy eastern turfman has been making endeavors to secure a three-year-old eligible to race in the Kentucky Derby this season with a good winning chance. He has priced such performers as the Derby favorite, Old Rosebud, Bradley's Choice, Boots and Saddle, Black Toney and Hodge. The huge sum of $55,000 is asked for Old Rosebud, while E. R. Bradley has stated he will not take less than $20,000 for either of his trio of cracks, Bradley's Choice, Boots and Saddle and Black Toney. As to Hodge, K. Spence refused even to name a figure for that chestnut gelding after turning down an offer of $10,000 for him.

Ralph is owned by George J. Long, a turfman who never sells a great horse no matter how high the bid is, and it is not likely that either J. N. Camden or R. F. Carman would part with their respective Derby candidates, Bringhurst and Surprising. Another horse engaged in the Derby not for sale is J. MacManus' Belloc and Waterbass, Amos Turney's crack, probably could not be bought for any reasonable sum.

No owner with a good horse cares to sell and there is so much in sight this season for good three-year-respective Devely candidates, Brighurst and Surprising. Another horse engaged in the Derby and for any reasonable sun.

Trarcy's crack, probably could not be bought for any reasonable sun.

crack filly, Climber, as yet unbeaten and winner of the Senoritas Stakes and two other races during the recent Juarez meeting. A number of borsemen fancy Gypsy, a daughter of the great Ben Brush, out of Runaway Girl, by Domino. Supremacy is another that has many admirers and, in fact, the entire collection, in the opinion of most good judges, will make good on the Kentucky tracks this season. As good a horseman as Col. W. E. Applegate thinks Climber will be as invincible in Kentucky this season among the fillies as she was during the recent Juarez meeting. It is to be regretted that she is not in the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington, as she might go from here and win that rich event as the filly Housemaid did the first year the stake was run over the Kentucky Association's track, in 1910. She has surely shown this year in public as well as Housemaid did in private for that race.

STAKES TO BE RUN AT AQUEDUCT.

Secretary Fred Rehberger of the Queens County Jockey Club has just officially announced the list of stakes to be run during the summer meeting of that organization at Aqueduct, June 27 to July 14. The list is an attractive one and includes several events that have held a high place in American racing of the past. It is made up as follows:

For Three-Year-Olds and Over:

Brooklyn Handicap, $2,500 added (from the Ownes' Fund), one mile and a quarter.

Carter Handicap, value $2,500, seven-eighths of mile.

Carter Handicap, Value $2,000, seven-eighths of a mile.

Brookdale Handicap, $1,500 added, one mile and an eighth.

Queens County Handicap, $1,000 added, one mile.

Myrtle Selling Stakes, value $1,000, one mile.

Rockaway Selling Stakes, value $1,000, three-quarters of a mile.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start good and fast. Won driving; second and third the same. SONNY BOY raced close up to the far turn, then took the lead, but had to be hard ridden to outstay PEACOCK at the end. PEACOCK ran a good race and was gaining in the final drive. CARBURETER set the early pace and ran well for three-quarters, then tired in the stretch drive. PORTARLINGTON closed a gap while bothered by the riderless horse, JIM CAFFREY, from the start. FROG was hard ridden and quit in the stretch.

Overweights—Carbureter, 2 pounds.

DERBY HORSES HELD AT HIGH FIGURES.

Easterner in Unsuccessful Quest in Kentucky for Good Three-Year-Old-Louisville Gossip.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—An illustration of the strices that racing is making throughout the country and the prestige of the sport in Kentucky is furnished by the fact that at present it is almost impossible to purchase for any reasonable sum any good race horse of established merit. For a week or more a prominent and wealthy eastern turfman has been making endeavors to secure a three-year-old eligible to race in the Kentucky Derby this season with a good winning chance. He has priced such performers as the Derby favorite, Old Rosebud, Bradley's Choice, Boots and Saddle, Black Toney and Hodge. The huge sum of $55,000 is asked for Old Rosebud, while E. R. Bradley has stated he will not take less than $20,000 for either of his tric of cracks, Bradley's Choice, Boots and Saddle and Black Toney. As to Hodge, K. Spence refused even to name a figure for that chestnut gelding after turning down an offer of $10,000 for him.

Ralph is owned by George J. Long, a turfman who never sells a greeat horse no matter how high the bid is, and it is not likely that either J. N. Camden or R. F. Carman would part with their respective Derby candidates, Bringhurst and Surprising. Another horse engaged in the Derby not for sale is J. MacManus' Belloc and Waterbass, Amos Turney's crack, probably could not be bought for any reasonable sum.

No owner with a good horse cares to sell and three seen in the proper of the seen much in sight this season for good three-year-

Carden or R. F. Carman would part with their respective berby candidates. Eringhurst and Surgery less J. MacManus Beliec and Weterbass. Anose Turney's crack, probably could not be bought for any reasonable sum.

Turney's crack, probably could not be bought for any reasonable sum.

Some the sight this season for good three-year-olds that owners of promising prospects are holding best horse of this age.

Even at $55,000 Old Rosebud would be cheap could he win the Kentucky, Derly in the same invincible win he kentucky. Berly in the same invincible won last season as a kindergarten performer, his clances of making a clean sweep of the three by almost equal the price now asked for him. If the won last season as a kindergarten performer, his clances of making a clean sweep of the three by a lamost equal the price now asked for him. If the won last season as a kindergarten performer, his clances of making a clean sweep of the three by a lamost equal the price now asked for him. If the won last season as a kindergarten performer, his clances of making a clean sweep of the three by a lamost equal the price now asked for him. If the won last season as a kindergarten performer, his clances of making a clean sweep of the three by a lamost equal the price now asked for him. If the won last season as a kindergarten performer, his class the price of the post this season of the reach season and the price of the post this season of the price. As good a judge as Thomas It Ryan but or any other three-year-old in the Kentucky Derby Bord, Ryan says that if he was about a hundred pounds heavier be thinks he would surely be been proved to the price of the Rajah, Bringhurst and Bradley's Choice. Ryan grant the season hand the proposed pounds more than it now is. Hodge is growing ment. Hodge has the blood of high-class horses in his make-up. His dam. Namide Hodge, was a pletty like a proposed proposed the price of the pr crack filly, Climber, as yet unbeaten and winner of the Senoritas Stakes and two other races during the recent Juarez meeting. A number of horsemen fancy Gypsy, a daughter of the great Ben Brush, out of Runaway Girl, by Domino. Supremacy is another that has many admirers and, in fact, the entire collection, in the opinion of most good judges, will make good on the Kentucky tracks this season. As good a horseman as Col. W. E. Applegate thinks Climber will be as invincible in Kentucky this season among the fillies as she was during the recent Juarez meeting. It is to be regretted that she is not in the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington, as she might go from here and win that rich event as the filly Housemaid did the first year the stake was run over the Kentucky Association's track, in 1910. She has surely shown this year in public as well as Housemaid did in private for that race.
